BY GRAHAM MOOMAW Richmond Times-Dispatch

Gov. Terry McAuliffe announced Thursday that state workers and teachers are in line for a 2 percent pay raise under the budget plan he'll propose next week.

The raise will go into effect July 10, 2017, McAuliffe said during WRVA's monthly "Ask the Governor" radio program.

"These folks, the teachers, the state employees, they're the best in the world," McAuliffe said.

I do not disagree that teachers and state workers deserve a raise, but it surely looks like McAwful is trying to bribe or pay back the unions.
